

I am in favor of a National do-not-call list. I also think telemarkets should be required to make their phone number and name available to caller-id.